

START HERE-GO ANYWHERE

ARTS 216: Raku

An exciting way to participate in the creation of your own works of art! Introduction to the principles of Raku: Firing, sawdust firing, fuming and pit firing. Simple glaze calculations and firing techniques. You will be amazed at how creative you can be.

This class will be taught TTh, 12:00-2:30 pm during the summer term and W 6:00-8:30 pm during the fall semester.

An example of original artwork by UNM
-LA student.

For More information, contact the Fine Arts Department at UNM-LA.
Phone 661-4697 or email
kwiller@unm.edu

The Summer Term begins Monday,
June 7, 2010 and the Fall Semester begins Monday, Aug 23, 2010